

Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others Policy

1. STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT TO CHILD SAFETY

The Geelong College has a zero tolerance for child abuse and are committed to acting in children's best interests and keeping them safe from harm. The College regards its child protection responsibilities with the utmost importance and as such, is committed to providing the necessary resources to ensure compliance with all relevant child protection laws and regulations and maintain a child safe culture.

Child abuse includes sexual offences, grooming, physical violence, serious emotional or psychological harm, serious neglect and a child's exposure to family violence. The Geelong College is committed to the protection of all children from all forms of child abuse and demonstrates this commitment through the implementation of a comprehensive Child Protection Program designed to keep children safe.

2. SOURCE OF OBLIGATION

The Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005 (Vic) (the Act) requires College to investigate and report to the Commission for Children and Young People (Commission) allegations of 'employee' reportable conduct or misconduct that may involve reportable conduct.

The Geelong College has developed the following Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others Policy which sets out our systems for enabling persons to report reportable conduct and for such reports to be investigated and responded to. This policy is made available to all staff, Volunteers, Contractors, members of the Council, families and students via our public website and staff intranet. A PDF of our Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others Policy is available there.

The Commission's website provides additional guidance and materials which assist the College to understand and meet their obligations under the Act.

3. DEFINING "EMPLOYEE"

For the purposes of the Act, 'employee' is defined as a person aged 18 years or over who is:

- employed by the College whether or not that person is employed in connection with any work or activities of the College that relate to children; or,
- engaged by the College to provide services, including as a volunteer, contractor, office holder or officer, whether or not the person provides services to children.

A minister or religion or a religious leader is also an employee.

Of relevance to the College, the following people are considered to be employees:

Title: Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others

- School Council Members;
- The Principal;
- Staff members;
- Volunteers;
- Third Party Contractors; and,
- External Education Providers.

For the purposes of this policy, all of the above are referred to collectively as "staff" or "staff members".

4. RELATED POLICIES

Our Child Safety Code of Conduct outlines expected standards of behaviour of staff members at the College when interacting with children and young people. Breaches of the Child Safety Code of Conduct may constitute reportable conduct under this policy.

Our Staff and Students Professional Boundaries Policy explains the importance of staff members maintaining professional boundaries with students. If a professional boundary is crossed, the conduct involved will constitute reportable conduct under this policy.

5. REPORTABLE CONDUCT

Reportable conduct is defined in the Act to mean:

- a sexual offence committed against, with or in the presence of, a child, whether or not a criminal proceeding in relation to the offence has been commenced or concluded;
- sexual misconduct committed against, with or in the presence of, a child;
- physical violence committed against, with or in the presence of, a child;
- any behaviour that causes significant emotional or psychological harm to a child; or,
- significant neglect of a child.

"Significant" means in relation to emotional or psychological harm or neglect, that the harm is more than trivial or insignificant, but need not be as high as serious and need not have a lasting permanent effect.

It will not be Reportable Conduct if:

- a member of staff takes reasonable steps to protect a child from immediate harm;
- a member of staff with responsibility for discipline takes lawful and reasonable disciplinary action, such as sending a child to sit in 'time out' for a period of time (refer to Student Discipline Policy); or,
- an appropriately qualified person, gives medical treatment in good faith such as a first aid officer administering first aid.

5.1 Sexual misconduct

Sexual misconduct includes:

- behaviour, physical contact or speech or other communication of a sexual nature, for example 'sexting', physical actions or inappropriate comments of a sexual nature;
- inappropriate touching or physical contact;
- grooming behaviour; and,
- voyeurism.

Title: Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others

"Sexual offence" for the purposes of the Reportable Conduct Scheme means a serious sexual offence as set out in Clause 1 of Schedule 1 of the Sentencing Act 1991 (Vic), which includes rape, attempted rape, sexual assault, incest, indecent act with a child, persistent sexual abuse of a child, grooming and the production or possession of child pornography.

5.2 Physical violence and harm

The Commission has provided guidance on how to identify physical violence, behaviour that causes emotional or psychological harm to a child and neglect.

Physical violence includes an act that causes physical injury or pain. Examples of physical violence can include:

- hitting/kicking/punching;
- pushing/shoving/grabbing/throwing/shaking;
- using an object to hit or strike; and,
- using inappropriate restraint/excessive force.

Physical violence does not include:

- reasonable steps taken to protect a child from immediate harm, such as taking a child's arm to stop them from going into oncoming traffic; or,
- medical treatment given in good faith by an appropriately qualified person, such as a first aid officer administering first aid.

5.3 Emotional or psychological harm

Behaviour that causes emotional or psychological harm to a child requires a clear link between the alleged conduct and the significant harm suffered (significant is defined above).

Signs that a child may have been emotionally or psychologically harmed may include:

- patterns of out-of-character behaviour;
- regression in behaviour;
- distress and anxious behaviours; and,
- other physical symptoms, such as self-harm.

The exacerbation or aggravation of an existing mental health disorder may also cause emotional or psychological harm.

Examples of emotional or psychological harm may include:

- exposure to violence or threats of violence;
- self-destructive behaviour;
- antisocial behaviour;
- persistent hostility/rejection;
- humiliation/belittling; and,
- scapegoating.

5.4 Neglect

Neglect occurs when a person does not meet their obligations and responsibilities to keep a child safe and well. The neglect:

- must be more than minor and insignificant;

Title: Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others

- does not need to have a lasting or permanent effect; and
- may be an ongoing situation or a one off incident, as long as it is not minor in nature.

Examples of different types of neglect include:

- supervisory neglect, which is the absence or inattention of a person which places the child at risk of physical harm or injury, sexual abuse or allows other criminal behaviours towards the child;
- physical neglect, which is the failure to provide basic physical necessities for a child, such as adequate food, clothing and housing; and,
- medical neglect, which is the failure to provide for appropriate medical care for a child, including a failure to acknowledge the seriousness of an illness or condition, or deliberately withholding appropriate care.

6. NOTIFICATIONS OF REPORTABLE CONDUCT

6.1 Reasonable Belief and Reportable Allegation

Under the Act, the College must notify the Commission of a reportable allegation against a staff member.

A "Reportable Allegation" is defined in the Act to mean any information that leads a person to form a reasonable belief that an employee (member of staff) has committed reportable conduct OR conduct that may involve reportable conduct, whether or not the conduct/misconduct is alleged to have occurred in the course of the person's employment at the College.:

Guidance from the Commission states a reasonable belief is more than a suspicion. There must be some objective basis for the belief. However, it is not the same as proof and does not require certainty.

6.2 Who Must Notify?

Under the Act, any person may disclose a reportable allegation to the Commission (section 16L). A disclosure can be made using an online form available from the Commission's website, by phone or by letter.

As Head of Entity ("Head"), the Principal of The Geelong College must notify the Commission (section 16M). It is a criminal offence if the Head fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with this obligation. The Act does not define what would be a "reasonable excuse" however section 16M(5) provides an exemption if the Head honestly and reasonably believed that another person had notified the Commission.

The Head must make a report using an online form available from the Commission's website.

6.2.1 The Principal and Delegation

The Principal is responsible for ensuring The Geelong College complies with the reportable conduct obligations under the Act. However, the Principal may delegate parts of their responsibility to facilitate the implementation of this policy. Guidance from the Commission supports the introduction of systems to assist the Principal to fulfil their obligations under the Act.

Title: Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others

It is important to note that while the Child Protection Officer does not have a formal role under the Act (unless they are the Head of Entity), the Principal may seek their assistance in the administration of the procedures in this policy. For example, the Child Protection Officer may assist the Principal to compile the information required to report to the Commission.

The Principal must ensure that delegation procedures are in place if the Principal knows they will be absent or is unexpectedly absent from the College. If a person has information supporting a reportable allegation while the Principal is away, the College must be able to notify the Principal to ensure that the Principal is made aware of the reportable allegation so that they can respond as soon as practicable.

Despite any delegation which may occur, the Principal will remain responsible and accountable for their responsibilities under the Act.

6.3 Reportable Conduct and Other Reporting Obligations

The Reportable Conduct obligation covered in this policy is separate and distinct from the:

- Mandatory Reporting obligation under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 (Vic);
- Obligation to Report a Sexual Offence obligation under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic); and,
- Conduct that is Reportable to the Victorian Institute of Teaching under the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 (Vic).

The threshold for reporting allegations of reportable conduct is much lower than these other reporting obligations.

Any allegations of criminal conduct, including physical violence, significant emotional or psychological abuse, sexual offences and significant neglect must be reported to the Victorian Police as the first priority. A Police investigation will take priority over any investigation conducted by the College under this policy.

6.4 Internal Reporting of Reportable Allegations

As soon as a person, including a staff member, forms a reasonable belief that a staff member at the College has engaged in reportable conduct or misconduct that may involve reportable conduct (the reportable allegation), the person must notify the Principal. The report may be made verbally or in written form using the Responding to Suspected Child Abuse Template.

This Template was created for reporting abuse, rather than reportable conduct. It is an excellent way to record as much information about the incident/s as is available.

Where the reportable allegation involves the Principal, the staff member must notify the Chair of The Geelong College Council or the Commission using an online form available from the Commission's website, by phone or by letter.

Where a verbal report is made by a staff member, it should be followed up with a written report provided to the Principal within 48 hours of the verbal report.

Title: Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others*6.5 Reporting to the Commission: The Principal or Chair of the Council

Where the Principal receives a reportable allegation from any person, including a staff member they must notify the Commission within three business days.

Where the reportable allegation involves the Principal, the person must notify the Chair of the Council who will become the 'Head of the Entity for the purposes of reporting the particular reportable allegation.

6.5.1 Stages in reportingStage One Report

The Head of Entity must report to a notification the Commission of the reportable allegation within three business days of being notified. The report to the Commission must state:

- that a reportable allegation has been made against a staff member;
- the name (including any former name and alias, if known) and date of birth, if known, of the staff member;
- whether the Victoria Police has been contacted about the reportable allegation;
- the name, address and telephone number of the College; and,
- the name of the Principal.

An online form available on the Commission's website must be used for the Stage One Report.

If the staff member is a registered teacher and the misconduct involves a charge, conviction or finding of guilt of a sexual offence, the College must notify the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) immediately under Conduct that is Reportable to the Victorian Institute of Teaching. The timing of making a Stage One Report to the Commission under this policy will coincide with the timing of a report made to the VIT.

Stage Two Report

As soon as practicable and within 30 days of becoming aware of the reportable allegation the Head of Entity is to provide a report to the Commission stating:

- detailed information about the reportable allegation;
- whether or not the College proposes to take any disciplinary or other action in relation to the staff member and the reasons why it intends to take, or not to take, that action; and,
- any written submissions made to the Principal concerning the reportable allegation that an employee wished to have considered in determining what, if any disciplinary or other action should be taken in relation to the staff member.

Any allegation of child abuse, including physical violence, significant emotional or psychological abuse, sexual offences or significant neglect, must be reported to the Victorian Police. A Police investigation will take priority over any investigation conducted by the College under this policy.

6.6 What Happens After a Report to the Commission is Made?

Title: Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others

After the Principal or the Chair of the College Council has made a report to the Commission, they must ensure that an appropriate investigation of the reportable allegation is conducted.

The investigation can be conducted by the Principal or the Chair of the Council (if the allegation involves the Principal or the College can appoint a regulator (for example the Victorian Institute of Teaching) or an independent investigator. A regulator engaged by the College for the purposes of an investigation may also appoint an independent investigator.

The Principal must notify the Commission of who will be conducting the investigation.

The investigation must be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedural fairness and natural justice. For example, the investigation should be conducted without bias and the person against whom the allegation is made should be given the right to respond. Refer to the Commission's Information Sheet 4 Investigation overview for more information on what to consider when conducting an investigation.

A Police investigation into any matter takes priority over an investigation by the College. On becoming aware that the Police are investigating a reportable allegation:

- the Principal should consult with the Police before commencing an investigation to find out if the Police are, or will be, conducting an investigation; or,
- the College's investigation should be put on hold until the Police investigation is complete.

The Principal or Chair must give the Commission:

- a copy of the findings of the investigation and the reasons for those findings;
- details of any disciplinary or other action that the Principal (or Chair) proposes to take in relation to the staff member and the reasons for that action; and,
- if the Principal (or Chair) does not propose to take any disciplinary or other action in relation to the staff member, the reasons why no action is to be taken.

Under the Act, a staff member may seek a review by the Commission of a finding made at the conclusion of an investigation.

6.7 Information Sharing

6.7.1 Children and Parents/Carers

Under the Act, the Principal may disclose:

- information about the progress of the investigation;
- the findings, reasons for the findings and the recommendations made at the conclusion of the investigation;
- an action taken in response to those findings;

to:

- the child who is the subject of the reporting allegation;
- a parent;
- a carer; or,
- the DHHS if the child is under its care.

Title: Reportable Conduct of Staff, Volunteers and Others*6.7.2 Schools, the Commission and Others

Under the Act, the Principal may disclose information in relation to:

- a reportable allegation;
- a concern that reportable conduct has been committed;
- the investigation of a reportable allegation or concern about reportable conduct;
- the findings of an investigation and the reasons or recommendations made at the conclusion of the investigation; or
- any action taken in response to those findings;

to:

- the Commission;
- the head of another entity governed by the Act, such as another school;
- a regulator;
- the Chief Commissioner of Police;
- if necessary for the purposes of an investigation, an independent investigator;
- if necessary for the purposes of a Working with Children Check, the Secretary to the Department of Justice and Regulation; and,
- a relevant Minister.

6.7.3 Publication of Information

The College must not publish information that would enable the identification of:

- a person or who notified the Commission;
- a child in relation to whom a reportable allegation was made or a finding of reportable conduct was made.

The Act provides more information on the meaning of 'publish', which includes making the information publicly available in writing or email.

7. POWERS OF THE COMMISSION

The Commission has broad powers under the Act in relation to investigating a reportable allegation at the College. The Commission may visit the College, inspect documents and interview staff members or children involved in the reportable allegation.

The College must assist the Commission in all reasonable aspects of its investigation.

8. RECORD KEEPING

The College maintains records of these reportable allegations, written reports and reportable conduct investigation findings indefinitely.

Records relating to a child protection incident are only disposed of in accordance with our Records Management Policy.
